Leave a Legacy to Holy Trinity

Catholic legacy gifts are an essential part of the wishes of parishioners to provide for their parish, a specific ministry, or the diocese at the time of their death. This can occur through direct giving by way of a will or trust, through a beneficiary gift from a retirement or life insurance policy to name a few examples. These generous gifts help continue the great work and missions within the Diocese of Colorado Springs.

Deacon Marc Wood is the Planned Giving and Legacy Officer for our Diocese. mwood@diocs.org

Catholic FYI

According to the Merriam-Webster dictionary, the word holiday is derived from the "Old English hāligdæg, from hālig holy + dæg day." Literally speaking a "holiday" is a "holy day."

Historically this always referred to specific holy days in the Christian liturgical calendar, Christmas being one of the highest holy days of the year.

Over time the original meaning was lessened as holy days became associated with vacations and time off of work. Typically Christians would not work on these days, so rest and relaxation were a natural part of every holy day.

This is one of the reasons why "going on a holiday" in Britain is the same phrase as "going on a vacation." At one point in time this was always associated with a specific Christian feast day, celebrating the life of a saint or even in the life of Christ.

During November we remember our deceased loved ones in the Book of the Dead.

In your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters. In this life you embraced them with your tender love; deliver them now from every evil and bid them eternal rest. The old order has passed away: welcome them into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping or pain, but the fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

St. Andrew Christmas Novena

Why 15 times a day? No one really knows, but I'll take a pious stab at some possibilities. The prayer is believed to be over 100 years old, and is traditionally prayed 15 times every day, though not necessarily all at once. (It may be broken up to be prayed throughout the day, such as five prayers in the morning, afternoon, and evening, the way the Angelus is repeated, or the Divine Office is spread out throughout the day.) The number 15 reminds me of the original 15 decades of the rosary, which was itself seen as a potentially simplified version of praying the 150 psalms that are still sung today by religious in monasteries and convents praying the Divine Office all over the world. There you go, not official, but it could explain why 15 times.

Not to mention that the 15 repetitions a day definitely drives home the visual of how blessed that hour and moment was at midnight, in Bethlehem, in piercing cold, so much so, that those words just seem to waft in the subconscious all day long. Which is why it's such a perfect Advent prayer of preparation and petition. It helps to keep the scattered mind focused on spiritually preparing for Christmas during the busy and noisy modern holiday season.

We will have a printed copy of the St. Andrew Novena available next weekend by the bulletins.

Adult Catholic Studies

THE SAINTS

Convinced we can never have too many friends cheering us on from 'heavenly bleachers', we will introduce you to six special saints who are the favorites of some Augustine Institute professors. Some are men, others are women. Some are from the early Church, others from more recent times. Some have names you will likely recognize, others have names you have never heard. Join us to meet these fascinating folks and learn what they can teach us about becoming saints!

Nov 1 First Martyrs of Rome and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton
Nov 8 St. Cyprian and St. Alphonsus Liguori

The Faith of the Church

We resume our Symbolon 2 series from the Augustine Institute. These classes teach on the Creed; offer insights from special Catholic sites; and provide helpful interpretation. They end with guidance through Lectio Divina, an ancient and beautiful form of praying with Scripture.

Nov 15 Mary, The Mother of God
Nov 22 The Sacraments
Nov 29 No Class–Thanksgiving
Dec 6 The Body and Blood of Christ
Dec 13 Made for Communion
